

SIERRA MADRE NEWS

YES, it is hot enough for us! And the next person that asks us is going to get an L. C. Smith table model ten years old with a new ribbon thrown square at his head.

And if the above doesn't sound quite right it's because we're too drippy around here to even parse a sentence.

Our Society Scribe just hung up the telephone, saying bitterly, "Nobody's home. If I just knew where they'd gone, THAT, at least would be news."

What she doesn't know is that the remaining Sierra Madre socialites are all lying in the bottom of their bathtubs breathing through reeds.

That gentleman with the large camera and the small moustache who stepped gently around Kersting Court Tuesday snapping pictures was neither spy, newspaper man nor traffic surveyor.

He was Michael Collins, freelance photographer who lives here and he took the pix because "you never can tell what you might go with 'em."

We wouldn't even want to predict.

We envy the guy who writes the Fish and Game Commission reports. It's nice work and he makes the best of it, to wit: "Since the crow bounty law became effective in September of 1945, fees for 4681 departed crows have been paid."

He also goes on to record that one Richard Haddon of Los Angeles collected bounty on 1423 crows—this single barreled warfare yielding him $213.45.

And then there's the restrained sentence that the "lion business brisqued up a bit during June when 19 were taken."

Clarence Schreier did it—caught a 27½ lb. salmon whilst fishing—And no story necessary for he brought the evidence home and ate it.

Banker R. C. Lewis went out to race his 45 foot schooner Saturday but reported gloomily that he "split his Jenny and had to drop out."

Well, we asked everybody in the office what a "Jenny" was, but no one knew a bulk head from a boom so we sent a messenger to the bank. We now inform you on good authority that a Jenny is a Genoa jib.

Last heard of, 'twas on the mend.

We see by the CBS publicity sheets that Old Blow Arthur Godfrey has got him a sponsor and will now confuse the country's air waves for profit.

We knew him when—he was confined to a Washington, D. C. and a New York station, commuting betwixt the two by plane—when he failed to appear on either if his dinghy went astray on the Potomac river. Best of all, we knew him when copy was so scarce that he once read a French menu he had pinched in a restaurant—complete with staggering prices and a Low American accent.

Good luck, red head.

For this weather we recommend stretching out on the floor in close proximity to an electric fan and listening to Debussy's "Jardins Sous La Pluie."

The same effect can be achieved by Danny Kaye's "Bloop Bleep Bleep Bloop."

It isn't the heat—it's the stupidity.

Pickett, service officer; Norman B. Jensen, historian; G. Robert Tolle, sergeant at arms; and Gordon P. Felts, Harold F. Roberts, Thomas M. Schwartz, C. Jack Chunn, Hall Perry, Eddie Robertson and Roy H. Pickett, executive board members.

All persons interested in American Legion activities are invited to attend the evening ceremony.

School Tax Reduction Chance Held

"Two major factors should work to produce good-sized school tax rate reductions for the school districts in Los Angeles county this coming school year," California Taxpayers' association said today.

First, assessed values of taxable property for 1947-48 show relatively large increases generally throughout California.

Second, school districts will receive huge increases in state support for 1947-48.

Some of the increased state support, in some places, will be needed for teacher salary increases, state law requiring that salaries be not less than $2400 per year, the association pointed out.

Last year's state apportionment to the schools in the county totalled $36,913,007, with $64,696,303 raised from local property taxes.

Urging citizens to attend the public hearings on their local school budgets, which will be held during the first week of August, the association said: "Citizen watchfulness is needed if the tax rate is to show reductions which reflect the increases in valuations and the increased state support."

"School taxes in California for 1947-48 can come down this year, if the people demand it."

Public hearing on the local school budget will be held tomorrow at 8 p. m. at the School.

GRADUATION FOR TEN TRAINEES AT HAZEL HURST

Ten blind men and women receive freedom with their guide-dogs on August 6th at 4:00 p. m. on the grounds of the Hazel Hurst Foundation for the Blind, Inc., where graduation will be held. This group of blind individuals includes several service men as well as civilians from all over the United States.

Graduation services are open to the public.

Hazel Hurst Foundation is located at the corner of Barhite and Sierra Madre Villa Streets, just north-west of Sierra Madre.

McCarty Bros. Sell Patent On Porcelain

Rights to manufacture the first porcelain produced in Sierra Madre were sold this week by McCarty Brothers to Leneige China, Inc., following transactions between the local firm and Bers Bercovis, president of the French company which is opening a factory in Burbank.

A tea set of the delicate porcelain was on display here during the Industrial Exhibit several months ago and has been shown throughout the country.

Patents and designs were turned over to the French firm with the McCarty's receiving royalties on the volume production.

Charles Chunn, patent attorney and Sierra Madre resident handled the transaction with Judge Noren Eaton in charge of business arrangements.

Rare Items Under Gavel August 13

Machinery, clothing and photographic equipment is among the $317,000 surplus war material at the San Bernardino base which will be offered at a spot sale to non-priority purchasers at 10 a. m. August 13.

Inspection of the merchandise, which includes pneumatic drills, hammers, power plants, and pumps, winter flying shoes, helmets, office furniture, shovels, and all the diverse equipment necessary to maintain an army air base, may be made during the seven days (exclusive of holidays) preceding the sale.

Bids may be made at either the Mira Loma Quarter master Depot, to which location all material at the Camp Ono base has been transferred, or at the San Bernardino AAF base.

The Mira Loma inventory includes mackinaws, field and combat jackets, whisk brooms, scales, hand trucks and baling machines.

Visiting Firemakers Moved Along By Visiting Fireman

Fire Control Agent Tom Henderson who patrols the foothills area above Sierra Madre, reported a Sunday encounter with a woman and six children who had parked a two-wheel trailer in the brush area above Monrovia and were cooking over an open fire.

The blaze, highly dangerous in the dry, tinder area, was put out and the family sent down to Monrovia Park officials.

LITTLE SQUIRTS BRING BIG PRICE

California oranges showed a substantial increase in fob returns for the week ending July 26 and total sales volume likewise was up. Small sizes were the major factor in the price increase as consumers apparently became aware of the real value in the little fruit.

EVEN AS YOU AND I—

HEAVY, HEAVY HUNG OVER THY HEADS!

Some unwitting Sierra Madre taxpayer is alive today because Police Officer Fred Lewis couldn't open a skylight in the City Council Chambers Monday night. During the meeting of the newly-formed Taxpayers Association Officer Lewis was asked to get some air circulating in the stifling meeting room.

High and low he looked for the pole with which to open the big glass skylights that are directly above the rows of seats. No pole. So the audience settled for a mild draft created by hand-propelled leaf fans.

After the meeting was over and the room cleared, Officer Lewis, who bears some persevering characteristics of a bull dog, and who wished to get cool air (there's sufficient hot) in the Council Chambers, went back and lo, there lay the pole against the baseboard. He applied it to the skylight over the west side front row of seats.

And a 13-pound counterweight, its rope frayed apart, crashed through the glass and thudded on the seat below.

P. S. All similar equipment has been removed for inspection and SOMEBODY should be walking around town with crossed fingers.

Centenarian Cuts Celebration Cake

One hundred years is a long spell to dally on this earth, so when Merrill Scoville's grandfather, H. A. White of East Pasadena, achieved that age last Friday it called for a celebration. At a gathering of the clan, among whom were Mr. and Mrs. Scoville and their three children, the venerable gentleman's health was toasted and a huge cake cut.

Mr. White, so far as the family can ascertain, is the oldest living Mason, having been a member for seventy years.

WELL FILLED LODGE WITNESSED CEREMONY

Hugh Johnson received his Third Degree in Masonry Tuesday evening at the Masonic Temple. Many members from the San Gabriel Lodge where Mr. Johnson is well known, and also local Masons witnessed the work.

THREE WAY COLLISION NETS NO INJURIES

A three-way automobile accident was reported by police Saturday, involving Barbara Wolbert, 1665 North Santa Anita, Arcadia; E. B. Funkhouser, 660 Woodland Drive and Donald E. Fairbanks, 86 East Highland.

No serious injuries or damage were reported, but Miss Wolbert was cited to appear in Court Saturday for failure to carry a driver's license.

Pasadena Tax Rate Hits Low of $1.12

With announcement that Pasadena's new tax rate will drop to $1.12 per $100, that city moved into the Southland limelight as a debt-free city, perhaps matchless in the United States.

A small bonded debt, outstanding against the city's credit, comprised of bonds voted to erect the civic center buildings, is being retired by surplus earnings of the Light and Water departments and no longer requires a tax levy on real estate.

According to City Manager Harold Hines this is the smallest tax rate for the city in 21 years. Property values have kept pace with the drop in the tax rate, and despite the fact that Pasadena has annexed new territory, the total property valuation in the city is far below the level of 20 years ago.

The Water department will be debt-free in 1948 and the Light department will retire its last bond in 1949.

N. Y. JUDGE AND FAMILY SETTLE IN SIERRA MADRE

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen S. Jackson and daughter, Martha Ann, and son, Stephen, Jr., newcomers to Sierra Madre from New York, are occupying the Gullixson home at 470 West Sierra Madre Boulevard. Martha plans to attend Mayfield school in Pasadena and Stephen, Jr., will be a student at Loyola.

Mr. Jackson is with the Motion Picture Association in Hollywood connected with the production code as first assistant to Joseph Breen. While in New York he was a Judge in the Court of Domestic Relations, consisting of the Family and Children's courts.

MASONIC TEMPLE REFURNISHED TOP TO TOE

The Masonic Temple has been undergoing face-lifting under the direction of Thomas Meader and Chairman of House Committee Raymond Andrews.

To date the Lodge room has been painted cream and ivory with the ornamental trim highlighted with gold; the rest of the upstairs, a stairway and foyer are all considerably lightened with cream paint and the foyer is refurnished with new furniture and draperies.

In the very near future the Eastern Star plans to recarpet and put up new draperies throughout the upstairs except in the Lodge room proper. By the time the dining room and kitchen are finished the whole interior will have been completely gone over. Members of the Lodge have given freely of both time and money to accomplish this feat.

Mercury Reaches 102; Teeters and Starts Slow Drop... Maybe

Except for the occasional blur of a rocket plane or the reckless dive of a hawk during sun stroke for a meadow mouse, the skies over Sierra Madre have shone blue and bright with heat for the past week.

Temperatures of 102 scorched the Saturday and Sunday weekend and those who were not away at shore or mountains wished fervently that they were.

A drop to 101 on Monday did nothing to shake the wish and Tuesday's cool spell of 98 meant little to a dehydrated populace.

There wasn't even a broken record to stir a little pride in lieu of breeze, for according to report, the city has had it hotter than this but no one cares to recall it.

BATES RITES HELD AT CHAPEL

Services were held Monday at Grant Chapel for Miss Elizabeth E. Bates, 78, of 233 West Grandview who was found dead in her home last Wednesday afternoon after suffering a coronary thrombosis.

Concern of her neighbors that foul play might have been involved, was dispelled by police who located a sum of money which Miss Bates recently had received.

The Coroner's office reported death due to natural causes.

Tourists Bring Top Trade

During the last 12 months' period for which statistics are available, out-of-state motor tourists did enough driving inside Southern California to total 2301 trips to the Moon!

Or, practically speaking, according to the All-Year Club, which this week released the results of a survey into tourist spendings, they drove a total of 550,000,000 miles. This does not include mileage of the trip from and back to their homes.

"To do this, they brought a total of 44,000,000 gallons of gasoline in Southern California," explained Don Thomas, managing director of the community tourist promotion organization.

"This, in turn, was enough to keep over 600 of our service stations and all their employees profitably busy doing nothing else but fill up tourists' gas tanks.

"And the gasoline tax from these tourist sales amounted to $1,320,682, which is a sizeable tax load thus lifted from the shoulders of local residents."

Altogether, Thomas said, the survey shows Southern California's community tourist business is a very big business, indeed.

"The $6,647,433 which these visitors spent on their gasoline purchases was just a small slice of the money they brought into our economy here," he explained.

"They bought food, shelter, clothes, drugs, haircuts, gifts, and everything else it takes to live, for a grand total of $509,000,000 of spendings during the past year. The impact of this half billion dollars of 'imported' money has had much to do with keeping our business level high."

TRIO OF CARS TRANSFER TO COURT

Hubert Tuttle, 152 East Laurel, will appear in City Court Saturday for sentence on charges of all night parking, no car registration and parking on sidewalk. Police report that charges are evenly divided between three cars in Tuttle's possession.

Last week Mr. Tuttle forfeited $15 bail on charges of all night parking of three vehicles.

stripped down for comfort, grumbling to let their volatile spirits boil off and coking hopeful but dubious glances at the porch thermometer as the weather man predicted relief in sight.

Nobody did anything sensational; the police records bore evidence mainly of irritable tempers; daily newspapers scraped the barrel bottom for a last retort in the Kaiser-Hughes affair, and radio announcers got wrapped up in the length of women's skirts. The whole country lay inert under summer heat.

The dog days were here. (However, a wire-haired terrier, interviewed by the NEWS as he lolled in the doorway, was heard to observe windily, "This shouldn't happen to a person!")

OPTOMETRIST, SPEAKER AT KIWANIS MEET

Dr. Robert Graham, Pasadena optometrist, specializing in developing and fitting contact lenses and also interested in manufacture of plastic optics, was the speaker at Kiwanis' Tuesday noon meeting.

Introduced by Dr. Daniel D'Arcy, local optometrist, he gave an interesting talk, telling of the advantages and disadvantages of contact lenses—proving the advantages to be many.

PTA Holds Summer Meeting

PTA plans for the year were discussed at an executive board meeting held last Wednesday evening, July 23rd, at the home of Mrs. Robert Summers, 671 West Point Grove.

"Foundations of Many Generations", the theme chosen by the California Congress of Parents and Teachers, was adopted as the theme for the year by the local unit.

Mrs. Laurence C. Danver, Motion Picture Chairman, reported that the PTA-sponsored Saturday morning children's shows at the Sierra Madre Theatre have been very well attended, and that the theater management has been encouraged by the response to continue these special children's shows during August.

KAIN FUNERAL RITES MONDAY GRANT CHAPEL

She is survived by her husband, Harry J. Gwynn of the Lima Street address and a son, George A. Thompson of Bakersfield.

Services were held Tuesday afternoon at Grant Chapel with Rev. Harley Smith, Jr. officiating. Final rites were at Forest Lawn.

Bethany Church Group Meets With Pomona

The Christian Endeavor Society of Bethany church held a beach party Saturday at the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Edwards at Huntington Beach. With their guests, 20 members of the C. E. Society of Grace Church in Pomona, the group started the afternoon with a few games, swimming and a picnic supper following.

Songs, under the guidance of Rev. Clarence Nida, were enjoyed around the camp fire after dark, and the evening was brought to a close by a brief devotional from Stanton Irvine. Carolyn Brooks, social chairman, was in charge, assisted by several members, among who were Joyce Conrey and Mrs. Nida.

ROSARY READ AT ST. RITA'S FOR MRS. MOORE

Mary Elizabeth Moore passed away Sunday at St. Luke Hospital following a brief illness. Mrs. Moore, whose home was at Cypress Court, has lived in the city 30 years. She was born in New Brunswick, Canada, and retired from the nursing profession several years ago.

She is survived by a cousin, Mrs. Mary E. Morrissey of Hollywood and four nephews in the East.

Rosary was read Tuesday evening at Grant Chapel and Wednesday morning at 9:00. The Requiem Mass was held at St. Rita's, interment at Calvary Cemetery.

NOW BRING THE TROUT HOME FOR EVIDENCE

From Kings River comes a tale of a venerable pack-train operator, whose method of preparing trout for transport has been adopted by several local sportsmen. The method reputedly keeps trout fresh and sweet and preserves their pristine coloration for many days.

Here's how. Lay cedar fronds on a burlap sack, with enough fronds to completely cover the sack. Lay out your trout in a row on the fronds, so spaced that they do not touch. Roll up the burlap, the cedar fronds, and the trout like a big tamale. Dip into water and hang out to drain. Hang out overnight to chill the fish, and wrap in a bed-roll the next morning when you start for home.

(Then throw away the bed-roll.)

EL MONTE DAIRY TO DISTRIBUTE IN THIS CITY

Adolph Sanchez who lived in Sierra Madre prior to the war is inaugurating a new dairy route in the city. He will represent the Gold Shield Dairy Products of El Monte.

The Sanchez family are living in Altadena no housing being available in Sierra Madre when Mr. Sanchez returned from the war. They are hoping to return to this city in the near future.

It's the loose nut holding on the steering wheel that causes the accidents.

FIRE FLAMES

"It's hot!", is not only a common expression these days but indicates a condition that is alarming to Sierra Madre firemen. The extreme heat and dryness is producing that treacherous state of affairs that we so dread here. Those of us who reside close to the foothills and the mountain brush need to be extra careful from now until the rains soak the earth around us.

The men of the fire prevention Dept. are doing their utmost to prevent fires from getting started. There is no need for any of us to get offended if we are told that our incinerator is out of order or needs repair. Most of us know that it is wrong to burn a large pile of papers or other trash outside of an incinerator. If you do such an act, you are committing one of the offenses that so often starts a fire.

During the summer months, the north side of our city is patrolled by the Forestry Department of the U. S. Government and because they have heavy responsibility, these men are very cautious. If they declare your incinerator out of order, it is out of order and you are doing yourself and the neighbors a favor by making an immediate correction.

Please do not imagine that the firemen are being abusive or officious. The many fires that have occurred and the very hazardous condition now existing is cause enough to keep a fireman's nerves highly strung. We ask that everybody be patient and keep in mind that we are in, and will continue for some time to be in, the greatest fire hazard season.

The fire drill last week found the firemen putting ladders up and down. This may sound silly to the readers but it wouldn't if they were to experience the difficulties.

A group is planning on attending drills at one of the Los Angeles Stations soon. This practice was a custom of the home fire department before the war, and is now to be renewed.

The meetin' was not without the usual hilarity and the accompanying fines. Froin indications of the after meetin' atmosphere, it would appear that the Hawks institute is organizing to control the Southwest Corner that was made so famous by the "Old timers" in days gone by. As this is being prepared for the paper, the sun is beating down as tho' it would burn things up. This only reminds firemen of the necessity of being alert for the danger of fire. This calls for us to remind you who read this to be alert also. This means that in order to prevent fire, we MUST practice some of the things that we so often preach and repeat. By all means DO NOT permit sparks to rise into the air. There is no control of these "varmints" after they leave your place of fire. Landing in dry weeds or other material of this nature, the result may be a fire sooner or later. It may even be two or three days before the fire may break out into blaze. If we want to continue to retain our record of few fires, then we MUST be careful to keep the FIRES OUT.

Great God Brown At Playhouse

Eternal war between the creative spirit, living life for life's sake, and the visionless demigods of the materialistic myth are given pointed words and masks by Eugene O'Neill in his amazing drama, "The Great God Brown", now on Pasadena Playhouse stage until August 3 as the fifth play in the current Midsummer Drama Festival series. William Greer, Phillip St. Pine, Gene Knudsen and Dolores Webster lead the Playhouse company under Dan Levin's direction.

Some Joker Found Japing About Jeeps; All Denied

Thousands of veterans have called or phoned the local office of War Assets Administration, 155 W. Washington Blvd., in the past few days, seeking confirmation of the following rumors:

1. That new (unused) and still crated jeeps would be sold to veterans in lots of 10 for $75 each, or made available to veterans on a 99 year lease.
2. That 100 veterans could combine to purchase a single jeep for $60 to $80, the vehicle to be awarded presumably by lot, to the holder of a lucky number.
3. That jeeps, cannibalized of their wheels, could be had for $50 each.

These rumors were all denied today by H. S. Krider, manager of WAA Customer's Service Center, who suggested the probable source of all this jeeps was a WAA sale of surplus automotive equipment for veterans only, to be held at Atlantic and Bandini Blvds., Maywood, September 8 and 9.

At that time, 700 jeeps will be disposed of on a "spot bid" basis, which means that veterans offering proof of service will be allowed to make bids for each vehicle. A tie among high bidders will be settled by drawing.

Incidentally, Krider warned veterans that a sharper, misrepresenting himself as a "War Assets" agent, was offering vets "sure thing" jeep certificates for $25 to $100. Such offers should be reported at once to Veterans' Administration or WAA officials, he said.

Prosecution will follow.

FIRE SLOGAN STARTS STATE CAMPAIGN

"Keep California Green and Golden" was selected as the winning fire prevention slogan in a state-wide contest sponsored by the California Fire Prevention Committee in which more than 25,000 school children participated.

The Slogan will be used to identify fire prevention educational efforts of the committee, a group of 45 civic, industrial, and governmental agencies who organized in March of this year for the purpose of intensifying efforts in reducing the large number of man-caused forest, range, and watershed fires that occur in California each year.

In its public education program the committee plans to include the slogan in short radio announcements, in the newspapers, and on prevention posters, leaflets, and roadside signs to remind Californians to be cautious with fire.

Scoville Duo On Northern Concert Tour

Sierra Madre's Scoville sisters, Marileen and Marjorie, accompanied by their parents, are to start tomorrow on a concert tour of Oregon, Washington and British Columbia.

During the tour, which was booked by Dr. Frank C. Phillips of Portland, Regional director and vice-president of Youth for Christ International, the girls will play every night and twice on Sundays, primarily at churches. They hope to be able to make Portland their headquarters most of the time and work out of there.

Marileen and Marjorie have recently been written up in several magazines, among which were "Christian Life and Times", "Sunday" and "Youth Does It", which are added feathers in their respective caps.

While the family is away brother Edwin will visit an uncle in Grant's Pass and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lemon of Ventura will act as care-takers of the Scoville home at 272 West Grandview.

Last Saturday Marileen and Marjorie played at the "Youth for Christ" meeting at the Chaffey College auditorium in Ontario, following which a surprise party was given, honoring Marjorie's 14th birthday.

SERIES OF PRE-NUPTIAL FETES GIVEN FOR ELIZABETH WAILES

Elizabeth Ann Wailes, who has chosen August 22 for her marriage to Ensign Donald Clare Wallace, is to be honored today at a pottery shower given by Barbara Putnam of Long Beach.

On Sunday Mrs. Don C. Wallace, mother of the prospective groom, has invited 60 members of the Wallace family to attend a garden party at her home in Long Beach to meet Miss Wailes and later in August Betty Jean Wallace, sister of Donald, will be hostess at a bridge luncheon at the Virginia Country Club in Long Beach.

Past events honoring Elizabeth were a luncheon given by Mrs. Philip McCaughan of Long Beach; a bridge luncheon at Victor Hugo's in Laguna with Betty Taves as hostess, and a kitchen shower given by Janice Campbell, Mrs. Sam Teak, Janet Wilkinson and Mrs. Robert Wells at the latter's home in Long Beach.

The bride-to-be graduated from Smith College this past June. Ensign Wallace was a Delta Kappa Epsilon at Stanford and graduated from Ann Arbor in the class of '46. He returned recently from duty in China.

Two-Way Boat Ride Starts Vincent Price On Career

A bit of strategy based on his observation that almost every time a ship arrived in New York from abroad an "unknown" walked down the gangplank and was hailed by some Broadway stage producer as a "talented new discovery," started Vincent Price rocketing on his way to stage, radio, and screen fame.

Price, who plays "The Saint," the swashbuckling Robin Hood of modern crime, on the air, admits that he was a born ham. And then he modestly adds, "I was persistent and fortunate enough to become an actor."

A bachelor's degree from Yale launched Price on a career as an apprentice teacher at a small school near New York. His teaching duties didn't deter him from leaving his name around the Gotham theatrical agencies, but there was never enough time for the "follow through" which would land him a stage job.

Finally he decided on his strategy.

He would go to London. A Master's Degree from the University of London would qualify him for a better job in the educational profession—provided he couldn't get started as an actor.

In London Price enrolled for post-graduate work at the University, but he spent far less time at the British Museum than he did in the stalls of London theatres. Finally, because he was an American, Price won the role of a policeman in the London production of "Chicago."

After "Chicago," the lanky young American was chosen to play the part of Prince Albert in the original London production of "Victoria Regina." Gilbert Miller, the New York producer, saw the play and, when he was casting his own version of it starring Helen Hayes, sent for Price to repeat his role on Broadway.

Price walked down the gangplank of the ship that brought him back—hailed as a "Talented new discovery"—a little more than a year after he had been turned down by every actor's agent in New York.

Called "Vince" by his friends,

EDWARD MURROW TO AIR NEWS

Famed for his news analysis from England during the war years, Edward R. Murrow is to undertake a daily series of news broadcasts over the CBS network beginning in the early Fall. He will continue to serve Columbia as executive consultant in the field of public affairs.

Price's favorite exercise is swimming. He has an amateur flair for drawing and sculpture; his wife cites him as her "favorite illustrator." They bought a house in Westwood's Benedict Canyon in 1945 and spent the next two years completely redoing the house and grounds.

His idea of recreation is taking his six year old son to the beach, zoo or any of the shows in town that the boy might enjoy.

One of the outstanding art authorities of Southern California, Price's taste in painters runs the gamut from classical Titoretto to Orozco, and he has filled his home with object d'art gathered from the entire world.

GLAMOUR TALK — To accentuate a beautiful young shoulder line, Emily Wilkens has created this halter topped gown with a tight bodice and slim draped skirt. This new version of a summer formal is modeled by NBC's Jean Gillespie. It is from Bonwit Teller.

Slav Songs and Schubert's "Unfinished" On This Week

The air waves for the coming week promise to produce some excellent programs in classical music, demanding of the listener only the twist of a wrist.

THURSDAY, JULY 31

Concert of Nations (KFI 7:30 to 8 p.m.) A Ukrainian ensemble of voices presents "From the Danube to the Volga" in song. To include Sibelius, Davidovsky, Lysenko and traditional Slav singing. Should be excellent.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 2

Saturday Concert (KECA 2 to 3 p.m.) No advance on this but probably good.

String Ensemble (KECA 3:30 to 3:45 p.m.) Fifteen worthwhile minutes. Should be more.

SUNDAY, AUGUST 3

Wings Over Jordan (KNX 7:05 to 7:30 a.m.) These spirituals sung by a choral group are worth getting up to hear.

Tabernacle Choir (KNX 7:30 to 8 a.m.) Choir to sing all Bach and there's no better. Dr. Frank Asper, organist, plays Bach Prelude in B Minor.

SOUTHLAND NEW LITERARY FRONT

Franklin Walker, Professor of American Literature at Mills College, is spending his summer at the Huntington Library among such items of California literature as manuscript letters and poems of Helen Hunt Jackson. Recipient of a Huntington Library fellowship under the Rockefeller grant to the Library for a study of the southwest, Professor Walker is engaged in writing a book on the literary development of Southern California from 1830 to the present time.

Professor Walker commented upon the profusion of material at the Library on his subject. Besides the Huntington's extensive collection of Helen Hunt Jackson manuscripts, works by and about such California authors as Mary Austin, Horace Bell, and Charles Lummie are engaging the literary historian's attention. Early California newspapers and journals at the Library are also proving useful to him as source material.

IOWA SENATORS AT STATE PICNIC

As a special tribute to Senators George A. Wilson and Bourke B. Hickenlooper of Iowa, the Flying Marines West Coast Band from El Toro, California, will play a concert at the 1947 Mid-Summer Picnic of the Iowa Association of Southern California. The picnic will be held Saturday, August 2, in Lincoln Park, Los Angeles.

James Melton (KFI 10:30 to 11 a.m.) Some pleasant Schubert, deFalla and Puccini, as well as semi-classics. With Genevieve Rowe as soprano guest.

CBS Symphony (KNX 11 a.m. to 12:30) Bernard Hermann conducts Schubert's Unfinished Symphony. Plus Overture to "Abu Hassan" by Weber, a suite by Rimsky-Korsakoff and "Les Preludes" by Liszt.

NBC Summer Symphony (KFI 1 to 2 p.m.) Milton Kattims directing a program that opens with Mendelssohn's delicate "Scottish" symphony. Next a modern composition "Oracion del Torero" by Turina, and brilliant finish with the "Gayane" Suite by Aram Khatchaturian. A must.

Family Hour (KNX 1 to 1:30 p.m.) Eileen Farrell and Charles Fredericks in classical and popular songs.

Alec Templeton (KFI 4 to 4:30) Beethoven, Gershwin and Templeton well-mixed; generally entertaining. Guest soloist.

Sunday Evening Hour (KECA 5 to 6 p.m.) Have no advance on this but it is generally good.

Album of Familiar Music (KFI 5:30 to 6 p.m.) Donald Dame and a bevy of good-name soloists singing everything from Donizetti to Berlin.

Prelude for Strings (KECA 6:45 to 7 p.m.) Just what it says.

Standard Hour (KFI 7:30 to 8:30 p.m.) West Coast symphonic orchestras in pleasing programs. Not overwhelming but good.

MONDAY, AUGUST 4

First Piano Quartet (KFI 6:30 to 7 p.m.) Four pianos and the delicious Debussy "Gollywog's Cake" waltz, the finale of Prokofiev's Classical symphony and several other bright additions.

Ezio Pinza (KFI 8 to 8:30 p.m.) Today's greatest basso in a famous aria from Mozart's "Marriage of Figaro" and several other well-chosen songs. Voorhees conducts lilting and popular Richard Strauss "Rosenkavalier" waltzes. Mark this down.

Eleanor Steber (KFI 8:30 to 9 p.m.) A fine clear soprano in some semi-classicals with Howard Barlow conducting.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 5

Berkshire Festival (KECA 6:30 to 7:30) Magnificent.

Wellsian Dream Realized In East-West Skyway Plan

Establishment of a transcontinental skyway for private aircraft was being sought by the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce and the Washington, D. C., Board of Trade, according to a joint announcement made this week.

Beesemyer said that following completion of a survey flight, the Civil Aeronautics Administration will be asked to designate a route between Los Angeles and the nation's capital as the first skyway.

"This survey will determine the most feasible and practical route and, also, the extent of interest of cities and towns on it in the matter of establishment of identifying ground markings."

"We believe the providing of a 'marked highway of the air' for cross country flying of personal pilots will be as useful in the development of widespread use of private planes as marking of highways was in the development of the automobile."

"Creation of well-marked skyways, of which the Los Angeles-Washington link will be the first, should stimulate cross-country flying and reduce hazards of lost bearings. Too often the personal pilot has to fly with a road map and risk his life looking for the names of towns on railway stations," Beesemyer said.

The two civic organizations propose, tentatively, the route go east by way of Arizona and Texas, with a branch north through Oklahoma, Missouri, Indiana, Ohio, and Pennsylvania and with another route by way of the southern states and north over the east coast by way of Atlanta.

Beesemyer indicated the CAA will be asked to cooperate in making the survey flight, timed for next month. He said the two civic organizations expected to secure the cooperation of the Personal Aircraft Council of the Aircraft Industries association and other aviation groups.

As the first step in development of a national system of marked routes for small plane operators, the Los Angeles and Washington organizations are proposing towns and cities within the 40-mile strip of the route set up standard markers with the names of cities, direction to airports, compass arrows, and identifying signs for the skyway.

POLICE BLOTTER

Stray sick cat reported, but not too sick to have disappeared before the law arrived. . . resident wants fireplace checked. This is a good cautious idea and one the Fire Service is glad to comply with. . . Two boys in a jeep drove happily up Mountain Trail with a load of rubbish. Were next seen driving happily back down the road without the rubbish. Reported and stopped, sent back to collect rubbish, cited and fined in Court. Foolish to think anybody could get away with making our mountainside a public dump. . . Lady reports stray dog on front porch. Dog now in City Pound. . . Another stray dog, but owner found and warned of ordinance. . . Loud noise at swimming pool. . . Dead skunk reported under house. It required a strong-willed officer to take a look, but all well, no smell, no skunk. . . Branch extending from side of truck breaks windshield of passing car. Driver of truck didn't notice the accident, but driver of car sure did. . . A car starts to roll down driveway as lady driver is trying to get out. Her foot pinioned between a post and the car. She freed herself before assistance arrived. . . Traffic collision. Dog bite, but bitee leaves town before dog can be identified. . . Smoke reported in vicinity of mountains. This is no time for that risky business. . . Fire alarm is out of order. Broken down, but repairs are ordered. Fire signals will be given by sounding siren several times. . . Barking dog, but per usual, all is quiet when Embree arrives to reason with him. . . Street lights out. . . And so is the blotter.
